

Privacy Policy – Uppsala Tennis Academy

Uppsala Tennis Academy protects your privacy and complies with the EU General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR). This policy explains how we process personal data in connection with our operations.

1. Data

When you register for our courses or contact us, we collect the following data:

- Name
- Personal identification number (if necessary for billing or identification).
- Telephone number and email address.
- Address.

2. Why do we collect personal data?

We process your data to:

- Administer course participation and contact with participants and guardians.
- Send out information about times, groups and activities.
- Invoice courses.
- Comply with legal requirements (e.g. the Accounting Act)

3. How do we store the data?

The personal data is stored securely. Only administrative staff has access to the data.

4. How long is the data stored?

We save data for as long as necessary to fulfill the purpose for which it was collected, e.g. for the time you participate in our activities. Some information (e.g. invoice documents) is saved in accordance with applicable legislation (e.g. 7 years according to the Accounting Act).

5. Sharing of data

We never share your personal data with third parties for marketing purposes. In some cases, we may use external services (e.g. notification systems, invoicing) that handle data on our behalf.

6. Your rights

You have the right to:

- Get information about what data we have about you.
- Have your data corrected or deleted.
- Request that we restrict the processing of your data.
- Withdraw consent (e.g. applies to photo use).
- Contact us by email if you wish to exercise any of these rights.
